

Allen W. Saylor Fine Arts Grant

GRANT PURPOSE

The Allen W. Saylor Fine Arts Fund was created in June 1997 to provide scholarships to under-served children for the development of an appreciation of fine arts and to enrich the lives of children by seeking ways to support individual student efforts in music, drama, dance and art.

ELIGIBILITY

Any organization or public school employee that offers fine arts program opportunities to under-served, public school students in Arizona.

GUIDELINES

- Grants can be used for items such as musical instruments, books, clothing, and/or experiences that help students develop an appreciation for the arts.
- An individual or organization may only be awarded this grant once per calendar year.
- Grant requests greater than $250 require further review by the AEA Foundation Board of Directors.
